Manning Law Firm PLLC, Raleigh

Granville County Sheriff Brindell Wilkins has consented to a court order suspending him from his duties pending the resolution of charges contained in two indictments. Wake County District Attorney Lorrin Freeman is prosecuting the cases, having agreed to undertake the investigation when Granville County District Attorney Michael Waters had to step aside from the investigation due to a conflict of interest. Sheriff Wilkins denies the allegations of wrongdoing, and has agreed to the suspension while he prepares for trial. A Granville County Jury will hear and decide the case. Sheriff Wilkins looks forward to exoneration and resumption of his duties. In the meantime, he will prepare for trial and farm.
